REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Did you know?

Importation of animals and animal products without a veterinary import permit is illegal!

- No animals and animal products may be imported without a veterinary import permit and veterinary health certificate.
- Declare any animal or animal products on arrival at the ports of entry.
- Failure to declare will lead to prosecution.
- Illegally imported animals and animal products will be confiscated.

NB: All these measures have been put into place to prevent the introduction of animal diseases into South Africa, as well as to protect human health.
