

Junior LandCare summit awards 2013

Picture 1: Gatelapela Secondary School

Picture 2: Pudologo Primary School

intellectual, emotional, social and spiritual capacities as individuals and as member of society, and thus contribute to the implementation of sustainable development with respect to our natural resources and finally to utilise for future generation and rewards to the best poem, best essays, best drama, best poster and best project. In attendance were Department of Environmental Affairs, Department of Education, Department of health, Department of community service from Tlokwe City council, Tlokwe Municipality, Department of Agriculture, forestry and Fisheries and Department of Agriculture from Northwest province. Mr Modisa Kgabesele was keynote speaker and handed the awards to the deserving schools.

Contact details:

Director: LUSM

Tel.: 012 3197685

E mail: LydiaB@daff.gov.za

The junior LandCare summit awards 2013 ceremony was held on the 02 December 2013 at Stone Henge hotel in Northwest Province. A Junior LandCare award is initiated by Doctor Kenneth Kaunda District in partnership with the Department of Agriculture from Northwest province. The purpose of the summit was to help young people to develop their physical, agriculture,

forestry & fisheries

Department:
Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

