DAFF MINISTER TO HOST FISHERIES IMBIZO IN PORT ST JOHNS

The Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, Honourable Senzeni Zokwana invites members of the media to the fisheries Imbizo to be held at Port St. Johns in the Eastern Cape Province. The Imbizo will focus on fisheries sector. This Imbizo will be an opportunity for the department to engage the public on the implementation of government's Programme of Action, which is aimed at improving the lives of ordinary South Africans.

Port St. Johns has been a focus on Operation Phakisa (harbour development in the area) and the Local Municipality together with District Municipality of OR Tambo have been involved in the fisheries programmes to assist the fishing community.

The fishing community is going to be given a chance to interact with the Minister on many issues affecting them.
